Those who received the mite boxes one year ago are requested to bring them to this meeting.

Resolutions on the Death of O. V. Joslyn.

Whereas our Comrade, O. V. Joslyn, in the fullness of years in his home on the 29th day of December, 1911, heard trumpet call, lights out, and passed to the shadowy encampment beyond the river of rest. It is not necessary to recount his services to this Post. They are interwoven with its history. He was a true and loyal comrade and a true friend to all deserving comrades. Therefore, resolved that G. W. Quimby Post, No. 76, G. A. R., hereby places on record its unanimous sentiment of profound sorrow because of the irreparable loss we have sustained in his death. Resolved that G. W. Quimby Post extend to the bereaved widow and immediate friends of the deceased the sympathy and condolences of loyal and honest hearts. That a copy of these expressions be sent to his widow and to the Orleans County Monitor for publication and placed upon our records. E. N. Randall, Com.

Important News Notes.

The democrats have selected Baltimore as the city in which they will hold their national convention June 26.

Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the self-confessed murderer of Avis Linnell, was sentenced to be electrocuted in May by the court in Boston yesterday. Council for Richeson will make an effort to have this sentence made life imprisonment.

Six lives were lost and $6,000,000 worth of property destroyed in New York city yesterday when the marble home office of the Equitable Life Assurance society was destroyed by fire. The building covered a whole block and hundreds of millions worth of securities in the vaults were in danger.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

The lecture next Wednesday evening, Jan. 17th, at the church will be a great treat. The lecturer, Rev. Felix Powell of Berlin, N. H., was born in Italy and has had a thrilling experience. He has the dramatic temperament and is a natural orator. The doors will be open at 7:30.

A notable event took place in the history of the parish last Friday afternoon at the parsonage. The two societies, the Ladies' union and Odd Girls, which have done splendid work for the church for many years disbanded, and a new society was organized. The name adopted is "The Woman's Alliance." It starts off with a membership of 63. The leadership is vested in a board of directresses, Mrs. C. S. Webster, Mrs. Lizzie Glazier, Mrs. Melvin Drown and Mrs. Z. E. Hanson; secretary, Mrs. W. W. Hartwell; treasurer, Mrs. P. L. Webster.

After adjournment the members enjoyed a social hour.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday were very cold days in northern Vermont the thermometer hardly getting above the zero mark in the whole time and on Sunday morning registering 30 below in some places. This weather without snow, in such marked contrast to the very mild weather we have been experiencing, seems quite severe. During Monday night the weather moderated and some snow fell, and yesterday the wind blew a gale all day. This snow will hardly make sleighing, owing to the fact that it has drifted so much.

The boys of the high school gave a reception to the faculty and students at Odd Fellows hall Thursday evening. The following program was carried out. Music, school orchestra; music, Glee club; mandolin and guitar duet, Glover and Alvin Jewell; overture, school orchestra; violin and clarinet duet, Hiram McLellan and Slayton Lang; scene, "In the Johnson Club." In this the members of the literature class portrayed some of the leading characters of the time of Samuel Johnson. The parts being assigned as follows: Dr. Samuel Johnson, Phil Davis; Oliver Goldsmith, Robert Jewell; David Garrick, Hiram McLellan; Adam Smith, Nellie Cassidy; Charles Fox, Theda Corley; Edmund Burke, George Phillips; Edmund Burke, Earle Fiske; R. B. Sheridan, Burton Brooks; Sir Joshua Reynolds, Clyde Cooper; waiter, Roy Branhans; music, school orchestra. After the program was completed, light refreshments were served and the orchestra furnished music for a short dance and promenade. The music furnished by the orchestra and Glee club was well rendered and a credit to the school. The scene "In the Johnson club" was not only interesting but instructive as well.

L. L. Drew of West Derby will be here with moving pictures Thursday evening. Those who attended when he was here several weeks ago pronounced the entertainment very fine. As Mr. Drew is one of our Glover boys we should give him a good house, this being the last show he expects to give here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Howe, widow of the late Ezra Howe of South Glover, died Saturday morning. She had made her home at Harley Drew's the greater part of the time since her husband's death. Last summer she suffered a partial shock and has steadily declined since that time. Mr. Drew's people have given her the best of care all through her illness. The funeral was held there Monday afternoon.

The next entertainment of the lecture course will be given at the North church Glover Tuesday evening, Jan. 16th, by the famous A. J. Harpin Musical Company. It is expected that this will be one of the best entertainments given in the lecture course this season. A. J. Harpin, the French-American basso, Marcia West Lewis, contralto and Francis Josef Martin, theory pianist are all famous as musical artists. The company will be assisted by Miss Catherine Cole reader. The company comes highly recommended and an entertainment of a high order is assured to those who attend.

About seven o'clock Sunday evening the Congregational church was discovered to be on fire by J. B. Tinker, when he went in to get the church ready for the evening service. Mr. Tinker gave the alarm and the fire was soon brought under control, which had been confined to the vestry around the furnace. Aside from burning a hole in the floor the audience room was quite badly damaged by smoke.

The report of the M. E. Sunday school for the year ending Dec. 31 showed that the school has held 49 sessions with an average attendance of 75 and a fraction. The largest number present on any one Sunday was 127 on June 18. The smallest number was 41 on Nov. 19. The total money received was $135.52; total paid out, $111.38. This leaves a balance in the treasury of $24.14. Of this amount $14.76 is due as Mis. money, leaving $9.38 for the Sunday school.

The annual meeting of the Congregational church society was held in the church vestry, Friday, Jan. 5th, at 11 a. m. The following officers were elected for the year 1912. Moderator, W. J.
